

The ASCE East Central Branch EWRI is hosting its annual in-person Seminar on May 12, 2023. Please see below for a tentative agenda for the technical presentations to be held at this event. The requested continuing education units for the event total to 5.0 credits.

From	To	Activity	Presenter	Approved CEU
7:30	8:00	Registration
8:00	8:15	Opening Remarks
8:15	9:05	FDOT District 1, Hurricane Ian – Flooding, Lessons Learned and Resiliency	Brent Setchell, P.E., District One Drainage Engineer, FDOT	1.0
9:05	9:35	FDOT District 5 Drainage Updates	Ferrell Hickson, P.E., District Five Drainage Engineer, FDOT	0.5
9:35	10:00	Break
10:00	10:30	2022 Indian River Lagoon Harmful Algal Blooms Review: A View from 700 km Up	Dr. Claudia Listopad, President, Applied Ecology, Inc.	0.5
10:30	11:00	Hurricane Ian – A Local Government’s Perspective	Paul Yeargain, P.E., CFM, Assistant City Engineer/Engineering Manager, City of Oviedo and Joshua Spence, P.E., CFM, Project Manager, Inwood Consulting Engineers	0.5
11:00	11:30	Development of a Science-Based Update to the Orange County Fertilizer Ordinance	Lee Mullon, P.E., CFM, D.WRE, PMP, Principal, Drummond Carpenter	0.5
11:30	1:00	Networking/Lunch
1:00	1:15	Scholarship Announcements
1:15	2:05	Don’t be Baffled by Your Baffle Box, Understanding Baffle Box and Upflow Filter Performance	Kevin Tyre and Mike Hardin, Ph.D., P.E., CFM, Geosyntec Consultants	1.0
2:05	2:30	Break
2:30	3:00	Get the Most BAM for your Buck! A New Treatment Train Design for Achieving Additional Phosphorus and Nitrogen Removal Beyond a Traditional Biosorption Activated Media System	Andrew Hood, Ph.D., E.I., WSP USA Environment & Infrastructure, Inc	0.5
3:00	3:30	Flood Protection in the St. Johns River Water Management District	Mary Ellen Winkler, Assistant Executive Director, SJRWMD	0.5
3:30	5:00	Closing Remarks/Networking
				5.0